Free Community Hymn Sing
in Overture Hall
Sat., Apr. 30, at 11 a.m.

The Madison Symphony Orchestra (MSO) will offer a free hymn sing with Principal Organist Samuel Hutchison in Overture Hall, 201 State Street, Sat., Apr. 30, at 11 a.m. All ages are welcome to join in the singing with the Overture Concert Organ.

No tickets or reservations are needed for the free Hymn Sing, which will last approximately 45 minutes.

With a gift from the Pleasant T. Rowland Foundation, the Madison Symphony Orchestra commissioned the Overture Concert Organ, which is the stunning backdrop of all MSO concerts. MSO Principal Organist and Curator, Samuel Hutchison, directs the programming for the instrument. In addition to the Free Farmers' Market Concerts, the instrument is featured in the annual MSO Christmas concert, along with several Free Community Hymn Sings and a Christmas Carol Sing. See details for all organ performances at <http://www.madisonsymphony.org/organperformancesTix>.

Support for all Overture Concert Organ programs is provided by the Diane Endres Ballweg Fund. For more information, please contact the MSO at (608) 257-3734 or email info@madisonsymphony.org.
